STATEMENT OF INTERVIEW SUBSTANCE

Sir:

This is filed in response to the Interview Summary mailed August 17, 2005 in the above-noted patent application.

In the Examiner-initiated interview of August 4, 2005, between Examiner Gary Counts and Kathleen Williams, attorney for Applicants, an Examiner's Amendment was discussed relative to a perceived §112, second paragraph problem with respect to independent claims 1 and 51.

More specifically, the following amendments were discussed:

- A) it was agreed that non-elected claims 35-50 and 55-80 were to be cancelled;
- B) in claim 1, line 10, after the words "wherein said," the recitation "one or more tagged binding partner polypeptides or said" was to be deleted; and
- c) in claim 51, line 10, after the words "wherein said," the recitation "one or more tagged binding partner polypeptides or said" was to be deleted.

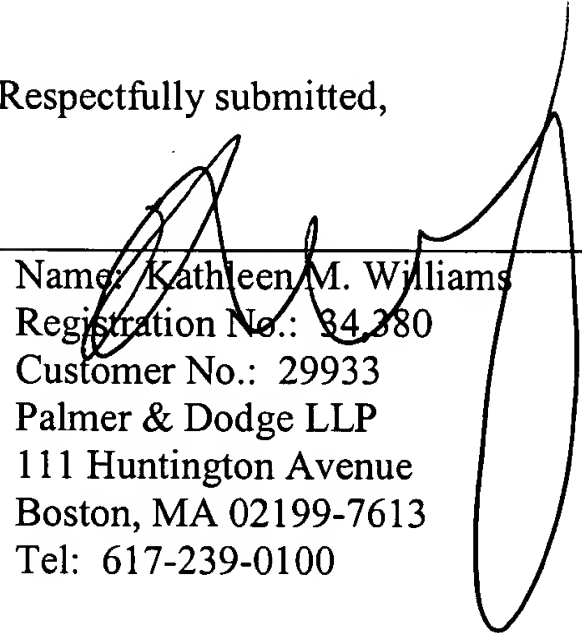

Serial No.: 09/770,102

Examiner Counts indicated that with entry of these amendments, all remaining claims are allowable.

Respectfully submitted,

Date:

8/29/05
